

Hounslow Anthem – Here to Rise

Hey! x2

We're rising from the ashes
We're breaking down the barriers
We're making space to breathe
We're here to rise.

Step by step, this takes time
Build it up, we're here to rise
Step by step, this takes time
Build it up, we're here to rise

We're drawn from near and far
Living together, and come what may, we're here to stay

And everyone can play
Hear our voices, be brave stand up, believe in yourself

And when you fall down we'll support you
We see you, we know you'll succeed
Our joy and our pride are right with you, there's nothing to fear!

Hey!

It's the pull that calls you back
It's the passion that never leaves you
It's the call that pulls you back
We're here to rise

It's the pull that calls you back
It's the passion that never leaves you
It's the call that pulls you back
We're here to rise

Step by step, this takes time
Build it up, we're here to rise
Step by step, this takes time
Build it up, we're here to rise

We're drawn from near and far
Living together, and come what may, we're here to stay

And everyone can play
Hear our voices, be brave stand up, believe in yourself

And when you fall down we'll support you
We see you, we know you'll succeed!
Our joy and our pride are right with you, there's nothing to fear!
