

RPO Chair Partners

Get closer to the RPO by supporting a position in the Orchestra

As an RPO Chair Partner, you'll become an essential member of our community, forging a deep connection with your chosen RPO player through your support.

Whether you have a passion for the Trumpet, Double Bass, or Piccolo, your partnership with the RPO will make a meaningful impact on our ability to bring exceptional music to audiences around the world.

Your generosity will help us to sustain our high-quality performances, education programmes, and support the professional development of our musicians.

At the same time, you'll be invited to enhance your experience with the RPO, through open rehearsals, priority booking for RPO concerts, and access to behind-the-scenes events with our musicians.

Perhaps you're interested in making a gift in memory of a loved one who cherished the RPO's music? We're here to guide you through the process.

Join the journey today and immerse yourself in the beautiful world of orchestral music while making a significant impact on the RPO's future.
