

Royal Philharmonic Orchestra

Legacy Campaign

Are you a member of the RPO 1946 Club?

RPO 1946 Club

You may be and you don't even know it.

You are absolutely under no obligation to tell us, but if you have already arranged to leave a gift to the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra (RPO) in your will, please do let us know; we'd like to thank you and acknowledge your generosity by enrolling you in the RPO 1946 Club, membership of which is free of charge.

The Club is only open to supporters who have arranged to leave a bequest to the Orchestra; as well as being acknowledged in concert programmes, each year, as a gesture of our appreciation, Club members are invited to a special RPO concert and reception.

It's very straightforward to add the RPO to an existing will; this is done via a Codicil, a very simple form which the Orchestra can provide. If you would like information on how to include the RPO in your estate planning, please contact Huw on 020 7608 8825 or email daviesh@rpo.co.uk; he will be very happy to talk you through what is a very easy process. And don't forget, there are tax advantages too.

Empower the RPO to enhance its legacy, by leaving one of your own.

Confidential Reply Form

Yes, I have named the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in my will and would like to be enrolled in the RPO 1946 Club Gift amount £.....

Please contact me about leaving a gift to the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in my will

Name .....

Address .....

.....

Postcode .....

Phone ..... Email .....

Please return to: Huw Davies, Deputy Managing Director
Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, 16 Clerkenwell Green, London EC1R 0QT