RPO Corporate Chair Partners

Unleash the power of partnership with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra

Join the ranks of companies, individuals, and families who engage with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra (RPO) and its musicians by associating with specific positions in the Orchestra through the RPO's Corporate Chair Partner Programme.

By aligning your brand with a particular musician and instrument, you can become part of the RPO family and forge a strong bond with one of the world's most iconic and revered cultural organisations.

As an RPO Corporate Chair Partner, you will join and network with an exclusive club of like-minded individuals and business leaders who enjoy a close association with the RPO and its talented musicians.

Your partnership will unlock access to a range of benefits, including complimentary tickets and private receptions, where you can network with business leaders and fellow RPO Chair Partners.

Most importantly, your financial support will help underpin the Orchestra's mission to bring the exciting world of orchestral music to the widest possible audience.

Don't miss this opportunity to join the journey and align your brand with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra.
